PASADENA EMERGENCY RESPONSE TRAINING

Part 1: Building a Disaster Kit

Disasters know no seasons. Safety officials have indicated that the community needs to be self-sufficient for several days in case of a disaster. This training class will be a first step in the planning process.

This training class will be led by Pasadena Fire Department Disaster Emergency Management Coordinator, Lisa Derderian, and will have three parts:

- What to Expect During a Disaster
- Making a Reunification Plan
- Building an Emergency Supplies Kit

DATE: March 27, 2012
TIME: 6:30-8 p.m.
LOCATION: Herrick Commons at Westridge School
324 Madeline Drive (Madeline Drive and Orange Grove)
PARKING: Use the lot at State and Orange Grove and walk north through the campus to the Commons.

If you have questions, please call the field representative at (626-744-4739) or check www.cityofpasadena.net/distrct6.
