B. The relocation allowance provided for in this section shall be automatically increased every year in accordance with changes in the HUD fair market rents. The moving expense allowance provided in this section shall be adjusted annually in accordance with the Consumer Price Index (for Los Angeles-Long Beach) pursuant to Section 1.08.060.

C. Except for units which are owner occupied or occupied by owner's family members, the relocation allowance provided for in this section shall be triggered if any of the following circumstances occur:

1. Demolition: A Landlord or Property owner seeks to recover possession of the unit for purpose of demolition.

- 2. Government Order to Vacate: The landlord seeks to recover possession of the rental unit in order to comply with a governmental agency's order to vacate, order to comply, order to abate, or any other order that necessitates vacating the rental unit as a result of a significant or extended violation of housing, health, building or safety laws of the State of California or the City of Pasadena which would result in a constructive eviction.
 - a. Non-exclusive remedy: This provision does not in any manner limit the rights of the City to recover from the landlord or property owner any relocation or placement assistance provided to assist eligible renters and/or other city costs incurred for the correction/abatement of distressed properties which the City is legally entitled to recover.
- 3. Permanent Removal of Unit from the Rental Market: The landlord seeks to remove the rental unit permanently from the rental housing market.

9.75.070 Temporary Relocation

or the City of Pasadena, or if a tenant is required to vacate a unit upon the order of any government officer or agency, the landlord shall not be required to pay the relocation allowance as defined in this Chapter, but shall provide relocation benefits to the displaced tenant. These relocation benefits shall include both temporary housing as provided in subsection (B) of this Section and moving costs as provided in subsection (C) of this Section. In the event that the tenancy of such person is subsequently terminated for one of the reasons set forth in Section 9.75, the landlord shall pay the relocation allowance required by this Chapter and the landlord shall have no further obligation for temporary accommodations under this Section.

Deleted: fee

- B. The type of temporary housing required by this Section is dependent on the duration of the tenant's displacement. If a tenant will be displaced for a period less than thirty days, the landlord shall relocate the tenant to a motel or hotel accommodation which is safe, sanitary, located in Pasadena, and contains standard amenities such as a telephone. The landlord shall bear the full cost of this accommodation and also provide the tenant with vouchers for food, laundry, and pet accommodations. If the displacement will be for a period of thirty days or greater, the temporary housing shall be rental housing. The rental housing shall be comparable to the tenant's existing housing in location, size, number of bedrooms, accessibility, type and quality of construction, proximity to services and institutions upon which the displaced tenant depends, and amenities, including the allowance for pets should the tenant have pets. Should the temporary housing be more expensive than the tenant's existing housing, the landlord shall be responsible for the cost differential between the rent that the displaced tenant pays for his/her unit and the cost of the temporary housing. The landlord and the tenant may mutually agree upon a housing type other than the temporary housing required by this subsection.
- C. Moving costs shall consist of all actual reasonable costs of moving, including, transportation of personal property, packing and unpacking, insurance of personal property while in transit, compensation for any damage occurring during moving, storage of personal property, disconnection and reconnection of utility services and any other additional costs attributable to a tenant's special needs, including needs resulting from disability or age.
- D. The displacement and relocation of a tenant pursuant to this Section shall not terminate the tenancy of the displaced tenant. The displaced tenant shall have the right to reoccupy his/her unit upon the completion of the work necessary for the unit to comply with housing, health, building or safety laws or any governmental order and the tenant shall retain all rights of tenancy that existed prior to the displacement

9.75.080 Remedies

A. Any landlord who fails to provide relocation assistance as required by this Section shall be liable in a civil action to the tenant to whom such assistance is due for damages in the amount of the relocation fee the landlord has failed to pay, a civil penalty in the amount of five hundred dollars and reasonable attorney's fees and costs as determined by the court. The court may also award punitive damages in a proper case. Any person, including the City, may enforce the provisions of this Chapter by means of a civil action.

B. No landlord shall attempt to secure from a tenant any waiver of any provision of this Chapter. Any agreement, whether written or oral, whereby any provision of this Chapter is waived, shall be deemed against public policy and shall be void.

SECTION 3. Chapter 16.46.050, of Title 16 of the Pasadena Municipal Code, entitled "Relocation allowance for displaced tenants" shall be amended as follows:

1. By adding the following sub paragraph under paragraph "A"

"For households at or below 140% of the median income, by household size, Subdivider shall pay a relocation allowance equal to two (2) months fair market rents as established by ("HUD") for a rental unit of a similar size. In addition to the relocation allowance, Subdivider shall also pay a moving expense allowance in the amount of $1,000 for adult households or $3,000 for households with dependents, disabled or senior members, except when tenant has given notice of intent to move prior to receipt of subdivider's notification of intent to convert."
