A Message to Our Friends and Supporters:

Our 30th season carries on our proud tradition of bringing fine concerts to the public at no charge.

This season we feature great works of the repertoire, that is, some of the most beloved works of Tchaikovsky, Dvořák, Stravinsky, and Beethoven, contrasted with a rarely played gem by Prokofiev.

We partner with fine soloists from the southland, and the winner of our 2013 Young Artist Competition will be presented in May.

WE CONTINUE TO NEED AND ARE MOST THANKFUL FOR YOUR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.

A generous tax-deductible donation will ensure the continuation of free, quality musical events for children, adults, aspiring young musicians and senior citizens. If you are interested in volunteering to help the orchestra in other ways, please let us know.

We anticipate a wonderful season and look forward to seeing you at the concerts.
